

Sponsorship Opportunities

Promote your business while supporting the Center by sponsoring one of our highly visible events, programs or exhibits. Sponsors receive all the benefits of their specific Business Member level, plus options for additional promotion.

Whale of a 5K Race and Fun Run $500-$3,000

This unique race through the park features a varied trail with amazing scenic views, as well as a short Fun Run for children. This is the culminating event to celebrate our Earth Day activities in April.

Music-by-the-Sea Concert Series $500-$3,000

Our most visible and popular event gets the entire family up on their dancin' feet.

Art in Nature $500-$3,000

This week-long event brings art and science together to foster an appreciation of nature through the visual and performing arts.

BioBlitz! $500-$3,000

Families team up with expert naturalists and scientists to inventory the park's flora and fauna in this dawn-to-dusk field science marathon! This highly mission-oriented event includes special activities for members and donors.

Heritage Dinner Series $1,500/dinner

These evenings of dinner and conversation with authors and scientists are the high points of our winter season.

Seaside Safari Environmental Day Camp $1,500-$5,000

Whenever school is out, Safari camp is in, through vacation weeks and all summer long.

Treks 4 Tots $1,500-$5,000

Offered during school vacations and throughout the summer, this morning camp is for pre-K children.

After School Enrichment $500-$2,000

These special nature programs are for students who remain at school after school.

Distance Learning Programs $500-$3,000

The perfect option for companies that want to support their branch offices' communities, these programs can be broadcast to any school connected to a distance learning network.

Exhibits $500-$5,000

Adopt an exhibit for a year, from the captivating Hard Hat Diver to our signature Touch Tank.

Seacoast Science Center Communications $1,500-$5,000

The Center's award winning newsletter and web site are ideal ways to showcase your support.
